The shareholders' meeting shall not elect candidates whose qualifications have not been reviewed to serve as directors.

The shareholders' meeting shall adopt the cumulative voting system when voting on the election of directors, except for the election of one director. The election of non-independent directors and independent directors of the Company shall be voted separately and counted separately.

The cumulative voting system as mentioned in the preceding paragraph means that when a shareholders' meeting elects two or more directors, the voting right(s) carried by each share shall be the same as the number of directors to be elected. The voting right(s) of the shareholders can be exercised on a concentration basis. The Board of Directors shall provide the brief biographical details and basic information of the director candidates to the shareholders.

Article 90 Except for the cumulative voting system, all proposals shall be voted item by item at a shareholders' meeting, and if there are different proposals for the same matter, they shall be voted in the order in which the proposals are submitted. Before the voting results are officially announced, the Company, counting officers, scrutineers, shareholders, network service providers (if any) and other parties involved in the on-site or online voting and any other manner of voting (if any) at a shareholders' meeting shall all be obligated to keep the voting information confidential.

The securities registration and clearing institution shall be the nominee holder of shares under the Mainland-Hong Kong Stock Connect mechanism, except where declaration is made in accordance with the actual holder's intent.

Where any ballot is not completed in full, is completed incorrectly or unintelligibly, or has no vote recorded, the voter shall be deemed to have waived his/her voting rights and the voting result for his/her shares shall be deemed as an "abstain".

Article 97 Where the presider of the meeting has any doubt on the voting result of a resolution submitted for voting, he/she may organize a recount of the number of votes; where the presider of the meeting fails to recount votes, and any shareholder or shareholder's proxy attending the meeting raises any objection to the result announced by the presider of the meeting, the shareholder or shareholder's proxy may require a recount immediately after the voting result is announced, and the presider of the meeting shall immediately organize a recount.
